

COVENTRY P.E.A.C.E. CAMPUS

coventrypeacecampus.org

[T]he integration of the Library and the arts campus and the business district is unique, exciting and visionary. I think we need to all work really hard to morally and financially support the vision because . . . it's really what Cleveland Heights is all about.

~ Suzanne DeGaetano - Owner of Mac's Backs Books in Coventry Village

For over 100 years, the corner of Coventry Road and Euclid Heights Boulevard in Cleveland Heights has served as a diverse educational and gathering spot for our community. Your donation will help support Coventry PEACE Campus in building on this tradition.

Coventry PEACE, Inc. (CPC) is an independent, nonprofit, 501 (c)3 organization. Coventry PEACE, Inc. was founded by community residents in the 1990s to build and maintain the PEACE Playground, and in 2017 its mission was refocused to the Coventry P.E.A.C.E. Campus building in order to pursue the vision of an integrated campus where everyone can “create, show, learn and grow.”

P.E.A.C.E. stands for People Enhancing A Community’s Environment. Coventry P.E.A.C.E. Campus is a self-sustaining arts, culture, and education non-profit cooperative. We support the missions and programming of our member organizations through coordinating and assisting with special events and projects, programming, volunteers, and networking. Through these efforts, we also help to connect community members with the organizations that we serve.

Thousands of people benefit annually from the programs and services that the Coventry tenants provide. Having them clustered in one building which is so close to the Library creates a vibrant extended campus that intensifies a sense of community.

~ Jennifer Wintner - Cleveland Heights resident
